

Please and Thank you activity

1. Have bowls of objects (used candy corn at the NAEYC). There should be one bowl of objects per row.
2. Have students sitting in rows.
3. First person in the row holds the bowl.
4. The person right next to the first person in the row sings, "please".
5. The person with bowl of objects sings, "Would you like some?" and hands the bowl to the next person and that person that sings, "Thank You" Go all the way down the row until everyone has had a turn.
6. As this is going on the teacher sings, "happiness" as she watches the students singing "please" and "Thank You".
7. On another day pick a student to sing the happiness part.
